Who Should Attend: Shakespeare enthusiasts, theater lovers, teachers, and anyone who would like to learn more about Shakespeare's life and his plays will have an opportunity to see the development of Shakespearean plays with a special emphasis on his stagecraft and the performance aspects. You will be able to see how ideas are developed and interpreted by actors and directors and how audiences viewed plays in Shakespeare's time. You will be exposed to the dynamic world of Shakespeare through close interaction with a renowned theatrical company. This program is designed for those seeking intellectual stimulation in an informal, collegial environment. Past participants have represented a wide range of experiences, ages, and educational backgrounds. No prior knowledge is necessary and every participant will leave with new ways to enjoy and interpret the work of the Bard.

Fees, Refunds, & Cancellations: The program registration fee of $875 per person includes parking, instructional materials, tickets to performances of A Midsummer Night’s Dream, Merchant of Venice, and The Lamented Comedy of John Falstaff, opening dinner at the University, a dinner at the Blackfriar’s Playhouse, and a cast party reception—in addition to breakfasts and lunches. The program Registration fee with four night’s lodging on campus is $995 per person. If you withdraw in writing before June 9, 2003, 80% of the fee will be refunded. In the event withdrawal is necessary after this date there will be no refund, but you may substitute another person without penalty. Trip cancellation insurance is encouraged.
